Wassail

ARCHAIC verb

gerund or present participle: wassailing

1. drink plentiful amounts of alcohol and enjoy oneself with others in a noisy, lively way.
"he feasted and wassailed with his warriors"

2. go from house to house at Christmas singing carols (or in our case pub to pub!)
"here we go a-wassailing"

The annual village Wassailing in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support takes place on Friday 23rd December. Meet at The Golden Lion at 5.30pm before heading out to other villages to delight them with tuneful carols and to entice them to part with their money (for an excellent cause). We will end up back in the village at around 9pm. Please contact Peter Edmonds 883408 if you would like a place on the minibus.

Osmotherley Area Parish Council-Nov

The council met on a very wet Thursday evening, 17 November, and began the meeting reviewing areas that were on the agenda last month and updating them. Following a query regarding tables and chairs outside public houses, the clerk confirmed that pavement licenses have been extended by government until 30th September 2023. The path on the Osmotherley side of Bog Hole bridge is not the same quality as the Thimbleby side and has led to several comments from residents. Should NYCC not repair this to our satisfaction then the PC will.

The trees have not been trimmed on North End as scheduled due to high winds on the day. It has been rescheduled for the 29th November 2022.

The Remembrance Sunday service at the war memorial went well and attended by a representative of the Lord Lieutenant. A big thanks to all who played a part in the service.

The posts in the verge opposite Cote Ghyll have been replaced with correct "no parking" posts.

The tree root, from the felled tree on North End, has been removed by the Caretaker and the ground repaired.

The paper presented last month on the Work of the PC was agreed to be placed in the Messenger in the New Year.

The Clerk confirmed that work was continuing at the Play Area to rectify issues raised by the recent inspection.

A meeting to discuss the Clack Lane culvert was scheduled for the 15th November between NYCC and Savills.

The bus stop outside Oswaldene has been reported as damaged to NYCC.

The hole in the road near the war memorial has been reported to both YW and NYCC to determine a solution.

The Chairman reported that the road edge along North End had been repaired, however the yellow lines in some areas had been covered. The Clerk was asked to report this.

The PC welcomed the news that NYCC had acted on second homes by suggesting a doubling of the council tax.

Planning, Police and Finance reports were considered and agreed.

Messenger Sponsorship

Thank you to those who have agreed to sponsor the Messenger. We are very grateful for your generosity which means this newsletter can continue at least for the near future. The Messenger has been produced and delivered to houses in the local area since May 2007. Until recently, the adverts in the newsletter have covered the printing costs. Laptops and software have been obtained via a grant and a donation and the editorial work and delivery has been carried out by volunteers.

We are still welcoming sponsors from the local community. If you are in a position and willing to sponsor us, we would be very grateful. In return we will include a 'thank you' at the top of the front page and contact details or a link to your business as required.

Please email the Editors to discuss os.messenger@gmail.com

Thank you – The Editors

Osmotherley Community Group

It was lovely to welcome everyone to our traditional coffee morning in November. As always, the cakes were scrumptious - thank you to all our bakers and volunteers. Our next event will be:

Christmas Coffee Morning and Carols on Tuesday December 6th from 10am to 12 noon.

We hope you will be able to join us for our Christmas Event. We'll have festive themed refreshments and carols will be provided by local children, our resident musician and on screen! We look forward to seeing you there.

If you still need to finish (or even start!) your Christmas shopping, there are still a few soup recipe books for sale. They are available in St Peter's, Top Shop and Osmotherley Coffee Shop as well as at Community events. We are hopeful that we will also have some reprints of our cake recipe book for sale - since its publication we know that there have been many new residents in the village who did not have an opportunity to purchase one. Of course, if you already have a copy, you may now need another one! May we take this opportunity to wish everyone a Happy Christmas and a Peaceful New Year

Come and enjoy an evening with us amidst the winter nights ahead: a warm welcome and great film is guaranteed!
